June 13 - 19

June 5, 2005
10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A final word of congratulations is in order for those of our parish who have graduated from one or another level of education these past weeks. To the students and parents who have reached a plateau where the view is different and more challenging, pray daily for the wisdom to make the choices which will bring individual fulfillment, benefit to others, and glory to God. God's blessings on all the graduates from our parish.

The beautiful weekends of June, July, and August now stretch before us and will slip by so quickly. Each Sunday is the Church's remembrance of the first Easter Sunday. From the importance of Easter Sunday flows in great part the obligation of Sunday Mass. It's a privilege won by Christ's death and resurrection. Don't let a weekend go by without exercising your privilege to share in the Church's weekly Easter celebration.

The Corpus Christi procession last Sunday was very moving and really a great 90 minutes of prayers and adoration. It was so gratifying to see the heavy presence of Blessed Sacrament parishioners. Bishop ListECKI was impressed with his first experience of the Corpus Christi procession in La Crosse. Thank you to all who participated. God bless you.

+Not to worry! It's happening. The work on the Parish Center is going forward even though it seems nothing is happening temporarily.

+A meeting for 3-6 grade parents with students at Blessed Sacrament next school year was very well attended. If you are still "on the fence" as to where your primary grade children will attend school, consider seriously a Catholic education at Blessed Sacrament or Cathedral School.

+Catholic School enrollment looks very good for next fall. Blessed Sacrament students will be many. Among them are some who need tuition help. Would you be willing to help a needy student?

+Inspiring sight - the number of people at daily Mass.
