July 10, 2005
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

One of the summer weekends I will remember has just passed. On July 3 about 200 of the Hundt clan gathered for a family reunion. It was interesting and enjoyable. The "dining" room was the hay loft of Grandpa's barn which, until July 3, 2005, held only the stuff on which cows dine. Some high tech cleaning tools made it a perfectly acceptable place to enjoy dinner. On July 4 afternoon another reunion of sorts --as most of my brothers and sisters gathered at a brother's lake home. Another pleasant day.

On the morning of the 4th 100+ gathered at Bob and Fran Skemp's farm continuing a long tradition of celebrating Mass on the farm on the Fourth of July. This was a gathering, not only of the members of the Skemp family, but many related only by being "brothers and sisters in Christ." The first gift God gave to the human race was precisely that, the gift of marriage and family. It was such a good thing, the family, that God pronounced it "very good." Everything else He created was only "good." The family was so good that one day He decided to take on human life and live in a family home in Nazareth and thereby consecrated the human family with a dignity no human agency could every give to it.

During these summer days find ways to enrich and enjoy your family life. Daily pray that the rights and dignity of the family be protected from the fashion and passion of our small slice of history.

FOOD PANTRY

As you know we weekly ask our children to bring offerings of food items to the baskets during Mass. Our local food pantries and folks who are needy stopping by the parish benefit greatly.

If on a particular Sunday you forget to bring that can of beans or box of Wheaties to church, fear not. There will be a basket in the Narthex where food items can be placed so empty-handed children can pick up an item to bring to the baskets. This way we can ALL be involved. Adults, drop off your food item in the basket in the Narthex. It will probably find its way to the altar during Mass. Thanks, everyone!

+It is amazing and inspiring – the number of people at 6:30 Mass. Join us if you can. Most powerful!

+Work proceeds on our building project. It's easy to notice the progress day by day. Pray everything proceeds smoothly and all the workers avoid even the slightest injury.

+A thank you to all who responded with great generosity to the letter which asked for Christmas in July. You are a wonderfully generous people.

+Fr. Joe Walijewski left for his beloved Casa Hogar on Friday. The response he received to his request for help for his projects was again most generous. Fr. Jose is an inspiration and so is your response to his request.

+A distressing e-mail came to the rectory. It was from a coach of a baseball team playing in the weekend tournaments. It seems the games this team plays close out any possibility of them getting to Mass. He said 9 of the 14 boys were Catholic. Who is it in a "Christian" country that plans a baseball tournament for kids on Sunday mornings? These people are youth leaders? Give them the best. Give them Christ on Sunday mornings.

+Gossip I guess is fun, but the talk about a pastor's imminent retirement is grossly exaggerated.

ROAD TO RECOVERY Could you help drive cancer patients to and from medical appointments? Your help would be greatly appreciated. Contact CAUSEWAY at 784-4517.
