BLESSED SACRAMENT WEEK FOR

Aug 8 - 14

July 24, 2005
17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The more things change the more they remain the same. It was a great change in the Church for a whole generation of Catholics when Benedict XVI took the place of John Paul II. The late Pope spoke and wrote tirelessly about the central place of the Eucharist and the central place of Sunday in the life of the Church.

"The Church needs Sunday," is a phrase of Benedict XVI. The Church needs Sunday because Sunday is the day most of us experience the faith family coming together for prayer and worship. The Church needs Sunday because that day is about Christ, and the world and each of us need Christ to give all the days of the week and our life their deepest meaning. Christ took on human life in all its challenges and rewards, joys and sufferings and taught us that, finally. With Christ all leads to the joy of eternal life if we live each day as faithful and transparent disciples of the Lord.

Sunday is the day we come to the church building to say, "Here I am, Lord." Here I am to come to hear Your word. Here I am to receive You in the Eucharist. Here I am prepared to accept the challenge to bring your love and peace to the family, the community, the place of work or play. The Church needs Sunday; it is our weekly renewal as God's people, our weekly renewal of bending our knee before the God and Father of us all. The Church, the world, each of us, young or old, needs Sunday.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING

July 18, 2005

The meeting was held in the rectory basement and opened with a prayer. Present: Fr. Hundt, Tim Brennan, Steve Flottmeyer, Joan Gazeley, Jason Hutzler, Tom Kieffer, Mary Kroner, Larry Lee, Joe Sweeney, & Susan Fukuda. Fr. Hundt updated members on the parish center project. Praying with the Gospels continues the 2nd Saturday of the month. A new members brunch is being planned for September. Susan Fukuda reported that a check for $1,406.66 was sent to CCS for $crip profits to participating families. Fr. Hundt announced that a Grief Support Group will start at Blessed Sacrament in October. The meeting ended with a blessing by Fr. Hundt.

+Tim Oudenhoven has been with us for many months now and has done many things. Among the many things is the computer work he has done on our new pictorial directory and a newly reworked brochure for the parish. It is truly expertly done, and we thank Tim for his work.

+The Fair Share contributions have been very good these past few weeks. God bless and reward all who have made this happen. Good stewardship is discipleship.

+In Mid-August we will have a priest from India in the rectory for about a month. Fr. George Thomas Thayilkuzhithottu (his last name is not Sark) is one of 3 priests arriving from India for the purpose of spending a few years in our diocese.

+It's so pleasant to tell you that we have gone beyond 50 people at 6:30 Mass. A parish at prayer is a parish at its best.

+Of the Parish Center, what can be said? The work is proceeding rapidly, as all can see.
